The following information was compiled to assist executive personnel with policy and strategic decision making. The following report provides information related to the various groups planning rallies/demonstrations for the 2005 Legislative Session in Annapolis, Maryland.

Research has not produced any information to believe that any of these groups will be other than peaceful. However, the potential always can exist for violence. Caution should be exercised when dealing with large groups especially when they indicate that they will resist any law enforcement officer trying to deny them their right to demonstrate, etc.

Executive Summary:

Equality Maryland:

Equality Maryland is an organization dedicated to ending discrimination against lesbian, gay, bisexual, and transgender (LGBT) individuals in Maryland. Equality Maryland aims to provide visibility for the LGBT Marylanders across the State and in the media, and to provide information to counter any of the false and/or incomplete arguments used by opponents to stigmatize communities.

Equality Maryland is working to address a wide range of issues that affect diverse communities. They are working for equal protection and equal rights under Maryland law and for the same fairness in all aspects of life that others take for granted. With the 2005 Legislative Session, the main issue is that of same sex marriage.

As Equality Maryland advocates for marriage equality for same-sex couples, they are striving toward full equality by: highlighting and campaigning for specific legal incidents of marriage; seeking equal pay for equal work through domestic partner benefits; leveraging public tax dollars, through equal benefits laws, etc.
