The Democratic Primary is THIS TUESDAY, June 9.

“I believe Terry McAuliffe will make a great governor.

He has big ideas and the experience to follow through.”

— Congressman Bobby Scott

On our jobs, our health, and our rights, Terry is on our side.

Terry has a plan to create green jobs, supporting thousands of Virginia families. He's working to make sure we can keep our health care if we lose our jobs, and wants to give us the option to save money on insurance by buying into FAMIS. Terry will shut down predatory pay-day lenders and invest in our kids' education from pre-K all the way through college or workforce training. He started the Voting Rights Institute to fight against voter discrimination and intimidation; as our Governor, he'll be on our side.

About Terry McAuliffe

Terry is a longtime member of his neighborhood parish at St. Luke Catholic Church and a lifetime member of the NAACP. At age 14, Terry started a driveway paving business to save money to help pay for college. Four decades of business success later, Terry has turned around a troubled bank and a struggling home building company. For 13 years he has managed large organizations. Under Terry's leadership, the Democratic National Committee invested in record grassroots efforts to help elect Tim Kaine, Mark Warner, and other Virginia Democrats.

Terry and his wife, Dorothy, have lived in Virginia for nearly 20 years, and are raising their five children here.
